

POWER OF ATTORNEY & CONTINGENCY FEE AGREEMENT

This agreement is between _____,
"Client" and TURNBULL, MOAK & PENDERGRASS, LLC, herein "TMP". In consideration of the mutual promises herein contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Purpose & Scope of Representation. The Client hereby retains and employs TMP to investigate and recover all damages and compensation to which the Client, and those the client represents, may be entitled to as a result of injuries suffered by _____ on/around _____.

2. Power of Attorney. TMP is hereby granted a Power of Attorney so that they have full authority to prepare, sign, and file all legal instruments, pleadings, authorizations, and papers as shall be necessary in the representation of Client, including reducing to possession any and all monies and other things of value due to Client under this claim as fully as Client could do in person.

3. Attorneys' Fees. The fee to be paid to Attorney will be a percentage of the "gross recovery," depending on the stage at which a final settlement by Client is reached or judgment is reached. The term "gross recovery" means: (1) the total of any and all amounts received by settlement, medical payment provisions, award, or judgment, including any award of attorney's fees, costs, interest, sanctions, workers' compensation that is part of the settlement, or any other proceeds that are promised to or received by Client for which Attorney has applied legal services. Attorney's fee shall be calculated as follows:

a. At any time before filing a complaint or proceeding to arbitration or mediation, Client shall pay ATTORNEY as his/her fee for such representation the sum of THIRTY-THREE AND ONE THIRD percent (33 1/3%) of any settlement, verdict, award, or recovery obtained.

b. If a lawsuit is filed at any time, or an arbitration or mediation is conducted at any time, Client shall pay ATTORNEY as his/her fees the sum of FORTY percent (40%) of the total settlement verdict, award, or recovery, so long as said resolution is reached prior to the 90-day period before the initial date set for trial.

c. At ninety (90) days prior to initial date set for trial, or any time thereafter, Client shall pay ATTORNEY as his/her fee for such representation the sum of FORTY-FIVE percent (45%) of any settlement, verdict, award, or recovery obtained, irrespective of any of the occurrences in 3c above.

d. If the law firm wins the client's case and an appeal is taken from judgment obtained for the clients, the law firm is to be paid for its services on appeal, a sum equal to interest on the judgment.

If Client settles Client's claim or cause of action without the consent of Attorney, Client will pay attorney's fee in accordance with the terms of Paragraphs 3a through 3e of this Agreement based on final recovery received by Client in Client's settlement and Client will reimburse Attorney for all costs and advances.

4. Expenses. Client agrees that TMP is to be repaid and reimbursed for all costs and expenses—all expenses will be deducted after the deduction of attorneys' fees. TMP agrees to provide Client with an itemized report reflecting all costs and expenses. Costs and expenses may include the following: court filing fees, service fees, expert witness fees, expenses for other testimony including depositions, expenses for other evidence including witness fees, exhibit preparation fees, photographs, photocopy, document reproduction costs, computerized research, investigators' fees, costs of briefs and transcripts on appeal, facsimile, postage, and travel expenses, as well as any other expenses incurred in this representation. Certain expenses may benefit multiple Plaintiffs; those "common benefit expenses" will be equitably allocated to all Plaintiffs who benefit from the expenses. TMP charges $300.00 as an initiating set up and processing fee on all cases which is recoverable at the close of the file. TMP reserves the right to recover interest expenses incurred on advancement of case costs as allowable under the laws of the state wherein the Client resides.

5. Cooperation of Client. Client understands the need to actively participate in the Client's case and agrees to comply with the requests of TMP in preparation of Client's case. Client agrees to update TMP concerning any change in circumstances including but not limited to the following: changes of address, phone number and/or employment, marriage, divorce, death. Client understands that Client's failure to actively participate in Client's case, or TMP's inability to contact Client could delay or adversely affect Client's case or bar certain claims if deadlines are missed as a result of TMP's inability to locate Client.

6. Disclosure by Client. Client agrees to inform TMP of any: (1) bankruptcy or Debtor's Court proceedings; (2) lien or subrogation interest; or (3) receipt of Medicaid or SSI benefits. Additionally, Client understands that Medicaid, SSI and other financially need-based benefits could be adversely affected by receipt of settlement proceeds from this lawsuit. Furthermore, if Client is serving in the capacity as personal representative of an estate, Client represents and agrees as follows: (1) Client has been legally and validly appointed; (2) the estate has been properly opened and remains open; (3) Client shall not undertake to close the estate without written authorization from Attorneys; and, (4) Client will immediately notify Attorneys of any changes in the status of the estate.

7. Statute of Limitation Waiver. Legal claims must be brought within a limited period of time or legal rights can be lost forever. The time period for bringing a legal claim is called the Statute of Limitation. TMP will not file or take action on Client's behalf without adequate time for investigation. Therefore, Client understands, agrees, and consents that TMP shall have no responsibility to file a claim or to take any action to comply with any Statute of Limitations expiring within 90 days of the date this contract is signed. If a Client's statute of limitation expires within 90 days of execution, Client's claim may not be filed within the statutory period, and therefore, forever barred. Client releases TMP from any liability and responsibility for failure to file a lawsuit during the 90 days following the execution of this contract even if the statute of limitations expires.

8. Settlement. TMP is authorized and empowered to act as Client's negotiator in any and all settlement negotiations but WILL NOT enter into a settlement agreement without Client's approval. However, Client agrees that TMP is permitted to withdraw and terminate representation in the event that Client rejects a recommended reasonable settlement offer. Client agrees that Client's inconvenience or inability in finding replacement does not constitute prejudice. If TMP withdraws under these circumstances, TMP will be entitled to fair compensation for the work done by them and to reimbursement of expenses advanced by them before withdrawing, in the event of a recovery by Client.

9. Association of Other Attorneys. Client agrees that any of TMP's attorneys may assist in the work on Client's case. TMP may associate outside attorneys in the representation of Client, or may elect to transfer Client's case to another attorney entirely if it is in Client's best interest. Association of other attorneys will not change the terms of this agreement. Additionally, TMP may retain third party contractors to negotiate medical liens and/or subrogation interests if TMP deems it, in TMP's sole opinion, to be in the best interest of the Client.

10. Sharing Information. Client authorizes the release of this agreement, case status, and other information to accountants, bookkeepers, legal consultants, marketing companies, and others who assist in furthering or administering the law-practice business of the law firms.

11. Withdrawal. In the event the client(s) dismisses the law firm, the client(s) agrees to pay the law firm the minimum administrative cost of $300.00, or the reasonable value of the services performed, whichever is greater. The value of services will be based on a rate of $300.00 per hour. If the dismissal is after an offer of settlement has been made, the client(s) agree to grant the law firm a lien on the settlement proceeds and pay the law firm the agreed upon fee percentage described in paragraph three (3) of this agreement of the last offer made prior to the law firm's dismissal due upon settlement or resolution of client(s) case.

12. Severance Clause. If any provision of this contract is held or deemed to be invalid, the remaining provisions remain valid and enforceable.

13. Guarantees. Guarantees concerning success, value, or time to conclude the Claim cannot be made. In the event of an unsuccessful lawsuit, Client may be liable for opposing party's attorney's fees and will be liable for opposing party's costs as required by law.

14. Valid Claim. Client understands that a suit brought solely to harass or to coerce a settlement may result in liability for malicious prosecution or abuse of process.

15. Choice of Law. This contract will be interpreted pursuant to the laws of the State of Nevada.
